3. [] In connection with attempts on the part of the Internal Security Subcommittee to arrange a suitable time for [] to appear in executive session, Jay Sourwine said Senator Dodd was to have returned to Washington today and set a time for this, unfortunately the Senator was detained and will not be back until next Tuesday or later. Sourwine said that should [] plane be such that he would become inaccessible before Sourwine could arrange a formal meeting, he would like to meet [] for a staff interview. In addition to questioning him with regard to the [] Conference, Sourwine said he had a number of technical questions on which he wished to question []. He anticipates a full day's session with him.
